* Members of an AEM-Mission organization (German) as well as members of the Evangelische Brüdergemeinde Korntal will receive a discount on course fees. Available for employees of individual Swiss mission agencies

Students who are in the process of applying to an AEM-Mission or are new members of the Evangelische Brüdergemeinde Korntal receive the subsidized AEM tuition rate for their next course (as far as applicable to the respective category)

- upon receipt of the confirmation letter from the mission's organization of the accepted application
- upon receipt of the written declaration of intent from the mission organization concerning the applicant's acceptance as a candidate.

2. Take5-Discount

If you enroll in 5 courses which are taken within 12 months: 50% discount on the 5th course taken.

3. Spousal Discount

Only on Bachelor/Master level: For every regular course one spouse takes, the other spouse may receive a 20% discount on their course fees, if both courses take place during the same academic year. Please check the appropriate box on the registration form!

4. Billing Period

Usually bills will be issued and sent out by email during the class phase and are due within two weeks of the invoice date.

All courses registered for the respective term will be billed.

Contact Anne-Kathrin Debus in case of questions: adebus@awm-korntal.eu

The graduation diploma will be released only after all invoices have been paid in full.
